

The New Community School empowers bright, talented students who are challenged by dyslexia and related learning differences. The innovative and research-based college preparatory curriculum uses a customized educational approach to build skills in language and math and to foster academic and personal strengths – igniting the passions and gifts of unique minds.

The New Community School is currently hiring a Middle School Science Teacher for the 2018-2019 school year.

This teacher will teach small classes of Middle School students in a supportive, professional environment.

Job Description: The teacher will:

- Teach small classes (6-8 students/class) a structured sequence of science concepts using varied instructional strategies.
- Contribute to the rich Middle School student life program.
- Serve as the faculty advisor to a small group of students.
- Facilitate ongoing communication with parents regarding student progress, including formal written reports in accordance with the school calendar.
- Teach an additional elective course as needed.
- Participate in the school's extensive pre-service/in-service training and mentoring program.
- Perform other supervisory duties (i.e., athletic coaching) as assigned.

Requirements: The ideal candidate must possess:

- A strong interest in learning differences and how they can affect the acquisition of science concepts.
- A bachelor's degree, Virginia state licensure, and two years teaching experience.
- Experience in working with students with learning differences is preferred.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- A desire and willingness to grow professionally and work as part of a team.

Salary Information

Salary is commensurate with experience.

To Apply: Send resume and letter of interest to Personnel, The New Community School, 4211 Hermitage Road, Richmond, Virginia 23227 – or - email employment@tncs.org